Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On behalf of the Australian National Service Committee, I write to encourage you to prayerfully consider attending this year's weekend Training School on the topic of Discernment.

This School will be a time to 'come away' from the busyness and distractions of life to reconnect with God and each other. St Ignatius tells us that choosing between good and evil is not difficult however choosing between two goods is only possible when attending to the inner movements of our spirit. The Training School will be an opportunity to equip you to recognise the voice of God amongst the competing voices in the world today. And help you to grow in discerning God's will in your personal life as well as in your service to the Charismatic Renewal.

Fr Ken Barker MGL will be the Retreat Director. The weekend will be held in the beautiful grounds of Pallotti College, 80 McNamara's Rd, Millgrove, Victoria. It begins Friday evening 24th August and concludes with lunch on Sunday 26th August. Public Transport to the venue is possible however it will involve a train ride from Melbourne Central Station and then a short bus journey to Millgrove. Car pooling/hire would be a better alternative to consider. Please contact your State representative if you need assistance with transport needs.

I look forward to seeing you at Pallotti College and pray God's blessings and love will be upon you and your families. May God anoint you afresh with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

Ann Brereton, NSC Chairperson
