Archdiocese of Melbourne, Australia

DECEMBER 2015

The background image is a warm, festive photograph. It features a lit candle in a glass holder, a red Christmas ornament with gold star patterns, and several out-of-focus warm lights (bokeh) in the background. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent dark red circle.

A Christmas candle is a lovely thing; It makes no noise at all,
But softly gives itself away; While quite unselfish, it grows small.

The Coordinators of CCR wish you and your families a very happy and holy Christmas.

Mark Nimo lives in Chicago with his wife, Mercy, and their daughter, Michele Marie. He was born in Ghana, West Africa. Mark underwent a deep personal conversion to Jesus when he encountered the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. He holds advanced degrees in Theology, Masters in Pastoral Theology and Ecumenical Doctor of Ministry.

Mary Healy is associate professor of Sacred Scripture at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit. She is co-general editor of the Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture. She serves the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity as a member of the International Pentecost-Catholic Dialogue. In 2014, Pope Francis appointed her to a five-year term on the Pontifical Biblical Commission.

Katherine Ruonala has a powerful prophetic and healing ministry. She is an international speaker and author reaching across denominational walls. She and her husband Tom are the founders and Senior Pastors of Glory City Church in Brisbane and have 3 children.

"Through more than forty years, CCR Brisbane has brought a rich and powerful spiritual dimension to the Archdiocese. Through this grace, many people have been drawn into a deeper personal relationship with Jesus Christ. The fruit of this is evident, and it is a great enrichment to the life and mission of the Church in this part of the world."

Archbishop Mark Coleridge, Archbishop of Brisbane
